The Goleta Valley Community Center (GVCC) has announced that this year's Christmas tree lighting will be held on Friday, December 10th. Entertainment will begin at 5:30 p.m. closely followed by the tree lighting.

According to Rob Locke, General Manager of the Goleta Valley Community Center (GVCC), there will be live entertainment throughout the evening. "We are excited to have various performers including the South Coast Karate, Cruz Dance & Entertainment, as well as our own GVCC School of Ballet. Each of these groups will bring something festive for the evening's event." The public is invited to attend this holiday traditional event for free.

This year the GVCC will also have cookie decorating and refreshments, Christmas crafts for kids, and an opportunity to win a Fresh Christmas Tree!

Corporate support has been provided by the Fairview McDonald's and the Goleta Home Depot. For more information, please contact Dorothy Turner at dturner@thegvcc.org or (805) 967-1237.
